

INVITATION TO HAVE YOUR SAY AND FIND OUT MORE

New vision for Cowdray Square play park

Dover District Council is consulting on the play park in Cowdray Square, Deal, and we'd like you to have your say. Would you like new equipment for children and young people? How about a designated dog area? A community garden with flowers and vegetation? Come along on Thursday 19th August from 13.00pm and tell us what you'd like to see in the area and have the opportunity to chat to your local councillors, Kent police, DDC officers, and other partner agencies.

Not able to attend the consultation in person?

You have until 26th August to complete our online survey via the below link –
